

Call for Submissions:

A.I.R. Project-Scholarship 2012 provided by Raum für Kunst und Natur, Bonn (GER)

The Artist in residence scholarship granted by the artist run co-operative gallery Raum für Kunst und Natur is meant to provide artists with the opportunity to realize a creative project on-site for a period of up to 4 weeks and to present it to the public of Bonn. The scholarship is open for artists of any age or nationality. The objective of the scholarship is to give fresh impetus to the art scene of Bonn by facilitating a series of artist sojourns from 2010 on. The submitted concept proposal for the creative project in Bonn should evince an approach in form or content to the topic of „Nature“.

The scholarship will include free board and lodgings, a workplace, the organization of a 3 week solo exhibition in Raum für Kunst und Natur, Eifelstraße 22 in Bonn (floor plan at www.raum-fuer-kunst-und-natur.de/profil), the dispatching of an invitation card, the arrangement of a vernissage, advertising and announcements to the press, and the documentation of the project on the website.

Application documents:

An illustrated concept proposal of up to 4 pages; CDs with image files, resp. video or audio files may be handed in additionally. Please note: the documents will not be sent back; therefore do not send in catalogs.

An expert jury consisting of representatives of several cultural institutions in Bonn will evaluate and form a decision on the submitted proposals in early May 2012.

Deadline for applications is April 21, 2012 (postmark). The sojourn will begin with the beginning of August 2012. The opening of the exhibition in Raum für Kunst und Natur in Bonn will take place on August 3, 2012. A vernissage will document the project on August 25, 2012.
